

HOW TO GET TO THE MAIN CAMPUS

The University of Texas at Austin is in the heart of the city of Austin, just north of the downtown area. Campus is just two miles from the State Capitol. Main thoroughfares around campus include Guadalupe Street to the west, Martin Luther King (MLK) Jr. Boulevard to the south, Red River Street to the east and Dean Keeton Street (26th Street) to the north.

IH-35

Take MLK Boulevard exit heading west for south campus; campus will be on your right. Or, take the Dean Keeton/26th Street exit heading west for north campus; campus will be on your left.

MoPac/Highway 1

Take Windsor Road exit heading east. This turns into 24th Street, which dead-ends into Guadalupe Street, the western border of campus.

Highway 71

From the east, take I-35 North and follow directions for I-35 above. From the west, take MoPac/Highway 1 North and follow directions for MoPac/Highway 1 above.

I-290

From the east, take I-35 South and follow directions for I-35 above. From the west, follow directions for Highway 71 above.

I-183

From the north, take MoPac/Highway 1 South and follow directions for MoPac/Highway 1 above. From the south, take Highway 111/Airport Boulevard North to MLK Boulevard. Head east on MLK Boulevard and campus will be on your right.
